

The purpose of the QEP is to develop critical readers
 through the use of meta-cognitive strategies.

DEFINITIONS

Critical reading is an active, reflective process of engaging in dialogue with texts of all modes.

Critical readers purposefully analyze, evaluate, and synthesize texts based on disciplinary ways of constructing knowledge.

HOW CAN YOU DEVELOP CRITICAL READERS IN YOUR DISCIPLINE?

Professional development opportunities begin soon

Contact: lisa.bosley@eku.edu

QEP DESIGN TEAM

Ryan Baggett

Lisa Bosley

Cassie Bradley

Rusty Carpenter

Lisa Day

Ginni Fair

Jaime Henning

Gill Hunter

Sherry Jones

Eric Liddell

Eric Meiners

Lynnette Noblitt

Shirley O'Brien

Jill Parrot

Rose Perrine

Lara Vance

Tanlee Wasson

Kathy Williams

Steffen Wilson

Garett Yoder

