

QEP 2017

OUR NEW LOGO!!

The Eastern Kentucky University Quality Enhancement Plan seeks to develop critical readers through the use of metacognitive strategies.

QEP Workshops Offered Spring 2017

- Developing Critical Readers through Metacognitive Strategies (Repeat from Fall 2016) : 1/31, 2/1, and 4/11
- Textbook Reading Strategies (New!): April 12

Comments from participants in the Fall 2016 session of Developing Critical Readers through Metacognitive Strategies:

This was a great introductory session to concepts related to deep reading. I want to better understand these strategies so that I identify discipline-relevant strategies.

Thanks so much for a great session; I look forward to learning more about this topic!

Innovative methods to spark interest in students to want to read.

QEP Kick-Off January 31 & February 1
